

Interviewing and patient care, 1986, 231 pages, Allen Jay Enelow, 0195036549, 9780195036541, Oxford University Press, 1986

The latest edition of this highly successful introduction to medical interviewing has three new chapters--"Emotional and Behavioral Responses to Illness and to Patients," "Interviewing the Older Adult," and "Interviewing and Continuing Care"--as well as a new section on eliciting the sexual history. Focusing on the human side of the clinician-patient interaction, this concise, practical work will be of great value to medical, nursing, and allied health students. From reviews of the second edition: "A superb book....It is aimed at medical students, for all of whom it should be required reading, but even a Fellow of the American College of Physicians could gain a great deal from its study."--Annals of Internal Medicine.
